

2017 FAA Asia Pacific Bilateral Partners (APAC) Dialogue
March 27 – 29, 2017
Long Beach, California, USA

Monday, March 27, 2017 – BILATERAL MEETINGS

Authorities' bilateral meetings	All authorities	Authorities to coordinate agendas with each other; Please advise the FAA of meeting room needs.

Tuesday and Wednesday, March 28 - 29, 2017– APAC Partners Meeting (2 Days)

FAA Aircraft Certification Service – AIR Transformation	FAA	FAA AIR-1 to update partners on AIR Transformation.
Introduction of Participants & Group Photos	DELEGATES and FAA (AIR-400)	FAA AIR-400 to coordinate photo op – designate location and photographer – TBD
Review Action Items from 2016	FAA	FAA AIR-400 to lead review of 2016 Action Items
Product Roundtables – Part 1 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Small/General Aircraft • Transport Aircraft Product Roundtables – Part 2 <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Rotorcraft • Engines/Propellers 	FAA –moderates All Authorities participate	AIR-400 to coordinate and moderate discussion. Partners are invited to discuss their experiences, issues, observations, achievements, etc. in each product line area (Small/General Aviation Aircraft, Transport Aircraft, Rotorcraft, and Engines/Propellers). The Roundtable offers a forum for partners to share information and engage in conversations on anything related to the product lines – e.g. Perhaps issues frequently encountered among/between partner/industry. The Roundtable also offers a forum for a partner to speak to a product line without having to be so formal as to prepare a full presentation. For example, if a partner wanted to talk about its experience with a particular helicopter and continuing airworthiness, this may be the forum in

2017 FAA Asia Pacific Bilateral Partners (APAC) Dialogue
March 27 – 29, 2017
Long Beach, California, USA

		which that partner can share their experiences and perhaps other partners may share similar experiences or advice, or at least benefit from the conversation as a learning opportunity.
Multi-Authority Validations: Strategic Allocation of Resources to Enhance Safety and Efficiencies	PANEL – multi-authority participation	FAA (ANM-100) to lead and moderate panel discussion. Participants will discuss support of multi-validation approaches to reduce authorities' resources allocated to perform this work and reduce levels of technical involvement, allowing authorities to focus on new and emerging certification work, and establishing confidence upon which to build further reciprocal acceptances.
RPAS/UAS – New Regulations in Japan	JCAB	JCAB will present its new RPAS/UAS regulations/news
RPAS/UAS – New Regulations in the U.S.	FAA	FAA will present its new RPAS/UAS regulations/news
RPAS/UAS Working Group – Harmonizing Global Standards for Certification Principles	PANEL – multi-authority participation	APAC RPAS/UAS Working Group panel. The panel will summarize the working group charter and objectives to harmonize certification principles for RPAS/UAS. And explain intended efforts/goals to share results of working group with ICAO.
Age Restriction on Aircraft Imports	PANEL – multi-authority participation	FAA (AIR-400) will lead and moderate panel discussion. The panel will address concerns that may have led to instituting or proposing age restrictions on aircraft imports and share safety knowledge to help mitigate such restrictions.
Collaboration Strategies - Maximizing the use of bilateral agreements to harmonize validation programs	PANEL – multi-authority participation	FAA (AIR-400) will kick off and moderate panel discussion. The panel will discuss opportunities for the FAA and other CAA partners to leverage existing bilateral agreements to introduce active confidence building initiatives and risk based validation

2017 FAA Asia Pacific Bilateral Partners (APAC) Dialogue
March 27 – 29, 2017
Long Beach, California, USA

		principles to accept partner certification activities with limited or no technical involvement. New Zealand and Singapore will discuss their experiences and goals in this area.
Japan's MRJ: Global Entrance	JCAB	JCAB will present on its experiences with the MRJ.
Cybersecurity: Common Principles for Engagement	PANEL – multi-authority participation	FAA (AIR-100) will moderate panel discussion.
COS Data Sharing	FAA – potential panel	FAA (ANM-100) to lead conversation.
Voluntary SMS – Design and Production Programs	FAA	FAA to discuss its new voluntary approach to design and production SMS programs.

INDUSTRY MEETING –

Thursday, March 30, 2017. Details coming soon.