CHAPTER 1: PURPOSE AND GENERAL PROVISIONS

The purpose of this document is to amend Revision 1 to the "Implementation Procedures for Airworthiness Covering Design Approval, Production and Surveillance Activities, Export Airworthiness Approval, Post Design Approval Activities, and Technical Assistance (IPA) - Under the Agreement between The Government of the United States of America and The Government of Japan For the Promotion of Aviation Safety, dated November 1, 2019". This Amendment is in accordance with paragraph 1.11.1 of the IPA, and the next revision of the IPA will incorporate these changes.

CHAPTER 2: AMENDMENT

This document amends paragraphs 1.12.1 and 10.1 of the IPA. The bold bracketed items identify the amended text and supersede the existing text in Revision 1 of the IPA. These amended provisions will apply to validation projects initiated after effective date of this Amendment.

1.12 Effective Date, Termination, and Cancellations

1.12.1 Effective Date

These Implementation Procedures become effective [five] months ([150] calendar days) after the date of signature, and will be used for new validation projects initiated after that date. These implementation procedures will remain in effect until terminated by either Authority.

10.1 These Implementation Procedures become effective [five] months ([150] calendar days) after the date of signature, and will be used for new validation projects initiated after that date. These implementation procedures will remain in effect until terminated by either Authority.

CHAPTER 3: EFFECTIVE DATE AND AUTHORITY

In accordance with paragraph 1.11.1 of the IPA, this Amendment will become effective following the signing of the Amendment by the authorized representatives of the FAA and the JCAB.

The FAA and the JCAB establish the provisions of this Amendment of these Implementation Procedures for Airworthiness, as indicated by the signatures of their duly authorized representatives.
