

ARSA Regulatory Compliance Training—Questions

Part 11: General Rulemaking Procedures

Level 1: For anyone working in aviation

§ 11.45 Where and when do I file my comments?

- (a) Send your comments to the location specified in the rulemaking document on which you are commenting. If you are asked to send your comments to the Federal Document Management System, you may send them in either of the following ways:
 - (1) By mail to: U.S. Department of Transportation, Docket Operations, West Building Ground Floor, Room W12-140, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, SE., Washington, DC 20590.
 - (2) Through the Internet to <http://www.regulations.gov>.
 - (3) In any other manner designated by FAA.
- (b) Make sure that your comments reach us by the deadline set out in the rulemaking document on which you are commenting. We will consider late-filed comments to the extent possible only if they do not significantly delay the rulemaking process.
- (c) We may reject your paper or electronic comments if they are frivolous, abusive, or repetitious. We may reject comments you file electronically if you do not follow the electronic filing instructions at the Federal Docket Management System Web site.

Question 1: Written comments submitted to the Federal Document Management System must be delivered by mail.

- A: True.
- B: False.

Question 2: To be considered, comments must be sent by the deadline set out in the rulemaking document.

- A: True.
- B: False.

Question 3: The FAA must accept all electronic comments submitted according to the instructions at the Federal Document Management System Web site.

- A: True.
- B: False.

Question 4: Written comments can always be submitted to the Federal Document Management System.

- A: True.
- B: False.

Name and/or Identification _____

Clearly Print the Name and/or Identification of the Person Taking the Test

Date _____

Date Test was Completed

Score _____

Enter as x (number correct) of y (number of questions)

Hours _____

Time Credited for Test

Approved by _____

Signature of Supervisor or Person Administering Test

ARSA Regulatory Compliance Training—Answers

Part 11: General Rulemaking Procedures

Level 1: For anyone working in aviation

§ 11.45 Where and when do I file my comments?

- (d) Send your comments to the location specified in the rulemaking document on which you are commenting. If you are asked to send your comments to the Federal Document Management System, you may send them in either of the following ways:
 - (1) By mail to: U.S. Department of Transportation, Docket Operations, West Building Ground Floor, Room W12-140, 1200 New Jersey Avenue, SE., Washington, DC 20590.
 - (2) Through the Internet to <http://www.regulations.gov>.
 - (3) In any other manner designated by FAA.
- (e) Make sure that your comments reach us by the deadline set out in the rulemaking document on which you are commenting. We will consider late-filed comments to the extent possible only if they do not significantly delay the rulemaking process.
- (f) We may reject your paper or electronic comments if they are frivolous, abusive, or repetitious. We may reject comments you file electronically if you do not follow the electronic filing instructions at the Federal Docket Management System Web site.

Question 1: Written comments submitted to the Federal Document Management System must be delivered by mail.

A: True.

B: False. Section 11.45(a) provides several avenues for submission of comments to the Federal Document Management System. “Mail”, electronically, and in any FAA designated manner.

Question 2: To be considered, comments must be sent by the deadline set out in the rulemaking document.

A: True.

B: False. Section 11.45(b) states comments must reach the FAA by the deadline; late comments will be considered if doing so does not significantly delay the process.

Question 3: The FAA must accept all electronic comments submitted according to the instructions at the Federal Document Management System Web site.

A: True.

B: False. Section 11.45(c) notes the FAA may reject paper or electronic comments if they are frivolous, abusive, or repetitious.

Question 4: Written comments can always be submitted to the Federal Document Management System.

A: True.

B: False. Section 11.45(a) directs commenters to follow the instructions in the rulemaking document. The specific options provided in (1)-(3) apply only if the document directs submissions to the Federal Document Management System.